AS A RETIREE, WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I CONSIDER WHEN REVIEWING MY 2020 TAX RETURN?

AMILY AND FILING ISSUES	YES	NC
 Did you take the standard deduction of $12,400 (single) or $24,800 (MFJ) listed on Form 1040, Line 12? If so, consider the following: If you made cash contributions to certain qualifying charities, you can deduct up to $300 ($150 if MFS) (Form 1040, Line 10b). In the future, bunching charitable contributions and/or certain expenses (e.g., medical expenses and property taxes) into one tax year may allow itemization.
 Are you married and do you want to protect yourself against liability issues, have a large disparity between your incomes, or have large itemized deductions? If so, consider preparing your tax return as both MFJ and MFS to compare the net tax liabilities. MFS may generate a smaller tax liability.
Are you recently divorced or has your spouse passed away recently? If so, review your filing status (located at the top of Form 1040).
Are you divorced? If you entered into a divorce agreement after 1/1/19, alimony is not deductible by the payor or taxable to the recipient. If you entered into a divorce agreement before 1/1/19, alimony is deductible by the payor (Schedule 1, Line 18) and taxable to the recipient (Schedule 1, Line 2a).
 recipient (Schedule 1, Line 2a). Were you eligible for Economic Impact Payments in 2020, but did not receive the full amount? If so, you may claim the Recovery Rebate Credit (Form 1040, Line 30).

AS A RETIREE, WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I CONSIDER WHEN REVIEWING MY 2020 TAX RETURN?

TIREMENT PLAN ISSUES	YES	NO	OTHER ISSUES
Did you reach your Required Beginning Date in 2020 (or before) or do you have an inherited IRA? f so, recall that the CARES Act waived RMDs for 2020. Thus, if you did not take a distribution from your retirement account(s), you are not subject to a penalty.			Did you take a non-qualified distribution from a 529 account? If so, file Form 5329 to calculate the penalty. The penalty is carried over to Schedule 2, Line 6. Reference "Is The Distribution From My 529 Plan Taxable?" flowchart.
Are you at least age 70 ½ and did you complete a Qualified Charitable Distribution? If so, make sure it is properly reflected, with the amount excluded on Form 1040, Line 4b.			Did you have large medical expenses? If so, review Schedule A, Line 1, to determine your medical expenses and your deduction limit. When calculating medical expenses remember to count Medicare premiums and long-term care premiums.
Have you ever made a non-deductible IRA contribution (Form 8606)? If so, make sure the cost basis is being tracked properly.			Are there state-specific issues that should be considered? Many states offer tax benefits to retirees, such as not taxing Social Security and/or pensions.
Did you withdraw money from an IRA that holds after-tax contributions? If so, check Form 8606 to ensure the taxable and non-taxable portion of the distribution was calculated correctly.			Do you own rental real estate? If so, review Schedule E to see what expenses you deducted on the rental property.
Did you convert amounts from a traditional IRA to a Roth IRA? If so, check Form 8606 to ensure that the amount converted is reported and any non-deductible IRA contributions that were converted are treated as non-taxable.
Did you roll over retirement funds during the tax year from one account to another (e.g., 401(k) to IRA)? If so, ensure that it is treated as a rollover and not a distribution by verifying that Form 1040, Line 4a, shows the amount of the rollover. Form 1040, Line 4b, should be $0 if no distributions occurred.
Did you roll over retirement funds and utilize NUA? If so, review your IRA distributions on Form 1040, Lines 4a and 4b, to make sure the basis was taxed.
